

Reflection Paper for Assignment #1

DUE: April 25 (This is the final exam period; class begins at 3:00 that day)

See handout #2 for more information

Write a 3-4 page reflection paper with the following ten sections.
Use single spacing, 11-point font, and one-inch margins.

Include section headings for each of these ten sections.

- (1) Team name [Group Identity] and team members
- (2) Initial Goal that you reported in your proposal
- (3) Ending Goal that you reached
- (4) Elevator Speech (You can cut and paste this from the Mgmt 379 web site)
- (5) Tell the story of what you did. Include the patterns. (For an example, see pages 85-97 in the Fearless Change book)
- (6) In one or two sentences, state how you changed the world. In other words, how is the world a different place as a result of your work on your project?
- (7) Among all the things you did in this project, describe the one thing that gives you the most pride.
- (8) Summarize the strengths you have that contributed to your ability to be a leader of change.
- (9) Opportunity for improvement:
 - a) Explain what you learned about yourself that you need to improve in order to lead change again in the future.
 - b) Explain why.
 - c) Explain what you can and will do to improve in these area(s).
- (10) List five things you learned as a result of doing your project—these are five pieces of advice you could pass on to future leaders of change. Present these five things in list form, as follows:

By doing <this – explain what you did>, I learned <this – explain what you learned>..... <follow with a short summary/description>
