

Miss Representation explores how the media's misrepresentations of women have led to the underrepresentation of women in positions of power and influence. Stories from teenage girls and provocative interviews with politicians, journalists, entertainers, activists and academics, reveal startling facts and statistics that will leave you shaken and armed with a new perspective.

Women Standing UP & Standing OUT

is the second part of a two part series of discussions on Miss Representation. This film will also be screened during the F*-Word Film Festival on Thursday, March 22nd at 7PM, followed by a student, faculty, and community panel discussion at UNC Asheville's Humanities Lecture Hall.

*[Feminist]

WOMEN STANDING UP AND STANDING OUT

FILM SCREENING AND PANEL DISCUSSION

FREE EVENT!

5:30pm—Screening of Miss Representation

7:00pm—Reception with Anne Ponder, UNC Asheville's Chancellor

7:30pm—Panel Discussion

WNC Distinguished leaders in politics, media, and education (Mayor Terry M. Bellamy, Keith Bramlett, Darcel Grimes, Jess McCuan, and Kaley Fry) discuss the film Miss Representation

Monday, March 26, 2012

Sherrill Center— UNC Asheville's Wellness Center

Mountain View Room 417

www.womensuso.weebly.com for more information

T.H.E. CENTER THANKS OUR CO-SPONSORS: UNC Asheville Women, Gender, Sexuality Studies Program, North Carolina Center for Health and Wellness, UNC Asheville Department of Health and Wellness, UNC Asheville HOLA, YMCA of Western North Carolina, Student Activities and Integrative Learning, NC Center for Creative Retirement